Dear parents/carers

RE: Christmas Show Costume Ideas (with low cost in mind!!!)

It's that time of year when we look at costumes for our Christmas show! We've been working hard at school and it's looking really exciting! Here is some guidance and ideas for the kinds of clothes that would fit different characters. These are vague and you are welcome to do something a bit different if it fits your child's character. Please note that no one needs to go out and buy anything. It is quite possible to wear simple clothes to make the following costumes.

Mary: A simple white/blue dress with a head scarf.

Joseph: Something brown/white. A scarf as a kind of belt works and a dishcloth as a head scarf.

Gabriel and other angels: All dressed in white if possible. Some angel wings and a halo are nice additions.

Narrators: Anything Christmassy! Christmas jumpers/bright colours welcome.

Caesar Augustus: A white bedsheet with a coloured scarf over the top would work well.

Innkeepers, desert women + family members (mums, dads and children): Something similar to Joseph.

Royal subjects/roman soldiers: Similar to Herod (unless you have a roman costume already).

Shepherds: Similar to Joseph.

Wise men/kings: Bright colours and beards if possible!

Animals: Be creative! Paper plates, make-up & masks!

Please talk to me at home time or tell your child to speak with me if you're unsure what to wear.

Best Wishes!
Orlando ☺
